

As a result of requests from parents and discussions with staff, we will be making a slight change to our footwear requirement. In the near future we will be broadening what is allowable. Canvas shoes are now acceptable as long as they are entirely black. All learners will be required to wear black shoes or sandals in good condition and worn correctly.

Please ensure that your son or daughter complies with our college footwear requirements.

These pictures give an indication of what is and is not allowed.

Correct Uniform Footwear

Incorrect Uniform Footwear

